Caution Circular.

To Druggists and Coun ry Merchants. Those valuable articles OLDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA for the Hair, and HAYS LI-NIMENT for the Piles, &c. have been extensively ounterfeited. Those wanting those preparations, will please always write, when ordering from any other house, for Comstock's articles. The true articles have the name or signature always on the wrapper, and venders will do well to remember that when ordering, as the imitations are so exposed in nearly all the newspapers throughout the country, no sale that they could not be sold, should they be so unfortunate as to get them.

Our friends throughout the Union are requested to give us immediate notice, by letter, should any of the counterfeiters appear in their respective Respectfully places.

Oldridge's Balm of Columbia. This article was first introduced into the New-York market about 20 years since, and from its superior virtues in reproducing hair when it has failed out, keeping the head free from dandruff, (a anst loathsome article on a gentleman's coat collar.) and giving a softness and beautiful lustre un-known before to the hair, has induced some perous to get up and advertise many other articles for the same purpose, none of which stand the test of rial, professing as most of them do, to be oils of various kinds, all of which are positively injurions to the human hair. Let none be deceived, no wher article will make the bair grow rapidly and of a good quelity; but the Balm of Columbia, and no stricle purporting to be the Balm of Columbia. is genuine without the name of Comstock & Co. on the outside wrapper. Some have been decrived and obtained a counterfeit article for the true and ge-nuine Balm of Columbia. Remember to look for the name of Counstock & Co. on the wrapper, before you purchase, and get none but the genuine. Den't be deceived with the assurance that any without the name of Com-tock & Co , is made in the same way and is just as good, all such pretentions are fulse and known to be so by the Counterfeiters. Sold Whole-ale and Retail, only at No. 2 Fletch

Prospectus of the Times.

The Proprietors of the Times have awaited the discontinuance of the Stockholder, as the period most opportune for the realization of the ope with which they have been encouraged in relation to such an extension of their subscription ist as shall render their establishment permanent, by relieving its conductors from all fear o embarrassment.

The election of General HARRISON-now re garded as a matter of absolute certainty-and the consequent c ange of Administration-the condition of the country-and the great measures of national policy, which must be discussed and settled without delay, lead to the belief, that we are but entering upon an epoch of unsurpassed interest and importance in the history of our country.

In addition to this, every man may now feel imself able to take a paper. The political character of the "Times" will renain the same as heretofore, although we hope soon to change its tones, from those of complaint and censure, to those of commendation-and, in his view of the case, as less space will suffice us or political discussion, we shall be enabled to render to our readers a weekly compend of what ever else is transpiring in the world around t em.

We shall have a competent friend at Washing ton, and at Jefferson, and thus be enabled to present the earliest and most authentic accounts f the proceedings of the National and State

The Markets, including weekly prices current in St. Louis and New Orleans, with whatever else may seem of interest or advantage to the agricultural community, shall receive proper and regular attention. In short-in addition to the ope inspired by our reliances, of being able to naintain, unimpaired, the high political reputaion of the sheet, we expect to render it an interesting and valuable Family Newspaper, which and other substances, to prevent further decay, and may be looked into, with profit and pleasure, by all classes of society.

As the period of the approaching Presidential election will present a convenient opportunity of testing our reliance upon the liberality of our 36 Packages of Boots and Shoes, for sale y friends, we shall cherish it as a favor if each of our present subscribers will shew this prospec tus to his neighbors and acquaintances, and for ward us a list of such names as may be procured directly afterwards.
